

PRESS RELEASE 1228
25 November 2005

Hilary Wines, who was the first Liberal Democrat Mayor of Southwark, is in Gibraltar for a short visit. Hilary has been a staunch supporter of Gibraltar for many years. She was instrumental in the tabling of a resolution in support of self-determination for Gibraltar at the Liberal Democrat party conference in Brighton a few years ago.

During her time in Gibraltar Hilary paid a courtesy call on the Leader of the Liberal Party Dr Joseph Garcia.

Speaking in Gibraltar Hilary Wines said: "It was very good to have come to Gibraltar a few weeks ago as part of the FOGHS and participate in the activities organised to commemorate the Nelson Bicentenary. I was also very pleased to see the Gibraltar float with Lord Nelson at its head during the Lord Mayor's Show in London."
