

STATEMENT BY THE GSLP/LIBERAL OPPOSITION

139/2009

8 October 2009

The Opposition very much regrets the tone and the content of the statement issued by Housing Minister Fabian Vinet against our housing spokesman Charles Bruzon. It is not worth an answer.

Mr Vinet is normally a very reasonable, helpful and friendly person and the vicious attack launched on Mr Bruzon, in his name, is totally out of character.

Commenting on the matter, Shadow Minister for Housing Charles Bruzon said:

“I will not be demoralised or intimidated by what Mr Caruana’s Government has to say about me. They have chosen to carry out a character assassination and have called me all sorts of names. I will simply continue to do my work to the best of my ability and will continue to hear and address complaints made by citizens whether the Government likes it or not.”
